

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dukal Awarded Provista Contract for Traditional and Advanced Wound Care Products

Agreement expands access to trusted wound care solutions across the continuum of care

RONKONKOMA, N.Y.—(BUSINESS WIRE)—January 5, 2026—Dukal, a leading manufacturer of healthcare products focused on accelerating product innovation and mitigating supply chain risk, today announced it has been awarded a new contract with Provista, one of the nation's largest group purchasing organizations (GPOs).

The agreement provides Provista clients with access to Dukal's comprehensive portfolio of traditional and advanced wound care products, supporting clinicians in the non-acute healthcare settings with high-quality, reliable solutions.

Provista, a Vizient® company, leverages clients' collective buying power to deliver best-in-class sourcing, analytics, and supply chain solutions across healthcare and other industries.

Under the new contract, Provista clients will have increased access to Dukal's extensive traditional wound care portfolio, including: gauze pads and sponges, adhesive bandages, elastic and cohesive bandages, tapes, dressings, and cotton-based products.

The contract also includes access to Dukal's advanced wound care line, featuring RENCURA™ Silicone Bordered Foam Dressings. From hospital to homes, RENCURA™ dressings empower patients and caregivers with advanced solutions and education for effective wound care.

"We're proud to contract with Provista to expand access to Dukal's trusted wound care solutions," said Charles Abbinanti, Dukal President. "This agreement reflects our shared commitment to supporting healthcare professionals and enhancing family and community health."

The Provista agreement reinforces Dukal's commitment to delivering high-quality, clinically effective products backed by exceptional supply chain performance—ensuring consistent availability and reliable support for hospitals, clinics, long-term care facilities, and other healthcare providers nationwide.

About Dukal

A leader in wound care for more than 30 years, Dukal develops and delivers products that protect and promote healing across a full spectrum of care needs. Through manufacturing excellence, global partnerships, and innovative supply chain solutions, Dukal works to mitigate disruptions and ensure reliable access to high-quality healthcare products worldwide. Learn more at www.dukal.com.

Media Contact

Amanda Frisbie
Director of Marketing Communications and Public Relations
Dukal, LLC
afrisbie@dukal.com